Comprehensive Excise Tax Recovery Solutions

• Flexible marking options
• Multi-level security features
• Track and trace technology
• Configurable Information System

25+ years of experience in excise tax recovery
Many communities depend on tax revenues to support critically needed public services. Taxes collected from the production and purchasing of products such as tobacco, alcohol, carbonated beverages, water or fuel is a significant financial contributor to a state or nation. Billions of dollars in tax revenues are lost each year to smuggling and underreporting of production volumes. The financial, societal and environmental impact from tax revenue non-compliance can be devastating to a nation.

Deceptive Practices Cannot Hide

Authentix collaborates with finance ministries, revenue agencies and customs departments worldwide to find products not being taxed and identify the source of the illicit activity. Our consultative approach and over 25 years of authentication and tax recovery experience enables us to understand and address tax collection challenges amid complex supply chains.
